La Autoridad Nacional de los Convenios de Construcción (ANC) tiene actualmente varios proyectos en puesta en marcha para la construcción del nuevo programa financiero. De acuerdo con el estudio de organización, los proyectos se dividen en tres grupos, los cuales tienen cuatro subgrupos. De esta manera, se generarán los cuatro proyectos de reforma y restablecimiento del Programa Financiero de la Autoridad Nacional de los Convenios de Construcción (ANC), cuya fecha de inicio es este 2018. Por primera vez, a partir del 2018, los usuarios podrán reclamar la devolución de los fondos perdidos con otras inversiones. Para que los costes de la nueva operación financiera se mantengan a niveles relativamente bajos, los proyectos se limitan a gastos administrativos, entre los cuales se incluye la participación de partes interesadas, la tramitación de la solicitud y el financiamiento. Los proyectos que contarán con la participación de partes interesadas, se dividen en dos categorías. En la primera se incluyen los proyectos que tengan un mínimo de participación de 20 por ciento y un máximo de 30 por ciento. En la segunda se incluye un grupo de proyectos que estén integrados por un participante mayor al 20 por ciento.
