It's called "Powered by Football™". This will enable us to incorporate all of the little nuances of soccer - like the way the ball bounces and spins when kicked, sliding tackles, and the speed of play - into your gaming experience. What does it mean for you? We're including unique stadiums from around the world in your career and you'll play on these amazing stadiums in the stadiums mode. The stadium can be customized and tuned to your playing style, your tactical preferences, the number of players on the pitch and more. It's just as flexible as it is authentic. Powered by Football™ will also allow us to be creative and re-imagine how the real-life environment of the pitch can impact and be incorporated into your playing style. This includes the way that the environment reacts to your ball-based skills like dribbling and shooting. It also will let us incorporate these types of reactions and feedback into tactics and gameplay. New Features Head-to-Head Seasons As a head coach in FIFA you can choose to face a team online over three seasons - a new feature.
