Joe Biden Thursday night told supporters at his third night rally that the good people of West Virginia hate Donald Trump “more than they hate me”. Biden boasts that Elizabeth Warren is not in the race, even though she announced in March that she would be. is to cut into Trump's "historic" support in the Midwest. "I think I am the only person who can win the election," Biden declared. "I've got a lot of money," he said. "I don't need any checks." Biden pointed to polls showing that he would beat Trump by double digits among Democrats nationally. He said he would also beat Trump in deep red states like West Virginia. "They hate me more than they hate Trump," he said. Biden said he "will not be deterred" from campaigning in the state. The 77-year-old Democrat focused on the Democratic Party rule-changes he would push if elected president. "We have to put in place, if the party wants it, 100-percent automatic delegate," Biden said. "That means in 25 out of 50 states, in 25 states, delegates are automatically given to you." He also proposed to freeze the executive branch's budget, cutting the departments down to five, and eliminating the role of attorney general. "It sounds like a joke," Biden said. "It's all about the rule of law."
